

Deepak Premnarayen to be IMC's President, Dr. Lalit Kanodia Vice-President for 2016-17

Deepak Premnarayen, Vice-President of Indian Merchants' Chamber (IMC) has been elected as the Chamber's President for 2016-17. Dr. Lalit Kanodia has been elected as IMC's Vice-President for 2016-17. They will take over at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Chamber to be held sometime in June 2016 when the President, Dilip Piramal, will step down from office after completing his distinguished one-year term. Deepak Premnarayen is the Non-Executive Director of the FirstRand Bank (FRB) (South Africa) in India. Dr. Lalit Surajmal Kanodia is the Chairman of Datamatics Global Services Limited which he founded in 1975. He has a degree in Mechanical Engineering from IIT, Mumbai. Subsequently, he obtained an MBA and Ph.D., both from MIT, USA.